

Floridablanca / Sant Antoni

Eixample / Barcelona

€350,000

This apartment is a very good option because it has everything. It's warm, with a lot of light. It has the ceilings with the beams and catalan vault, something that I love and that it gives a unique touch. The remodeling, from 2014, is timeless. And, on top of all that, it's rented until 2025, with very good profitability. Who's in?

This apartment in Sant Antoni is a fourth floor of 58,50m². It has a living/dining room with balcony, open and equipped kitchen, a double bedroom with balcony, one bathroom and a storage room inside the apartment. It has AC and double climalit windows, with high ceilings with beams and catalan vault. The apartment was remodeled in 2014, and the building, from 1915, has elevator. The property is rented until april of 2025. It has a profitability close to 5%.

You'll love it!
