

Josep Tarradellas / Diagonal

Les Corts / Barcelona

€1,050,000

I find it very interesting to see empty spaces, I think it allows you much more creativity. Here I imagine warm lights, a large sofa and of course a chill out area on the terrace. With a base this good, it will be easy to turn it into a poster home.

This seventh floor has 143m² of which 11.50m² belong to a terrace and 32m² to another terrace. There is a living room with access to one of the terraces and a dining room with access to the terrace, as well. It has an open and equipped kitchen with island, three bedrooms (two doubles en suite), three full bathrooms and laundry room. It is renovated in 2024 and has air conditioning and central heating, as well as double glazed windows. The building dates back to 1954 and has an elevator.
