

Passatge de Xile / Les Corts

Les Corts / Barcelona

€1,450,000

I really like to see large apartments, like this one with four floors. Because it's a bit like an excursion into the unknown. Let's see what room we will find behind this door, here it seems that we have a second living room, a terrace with a jacuzzi... Seeing and making a map of everything that each home is, is great.

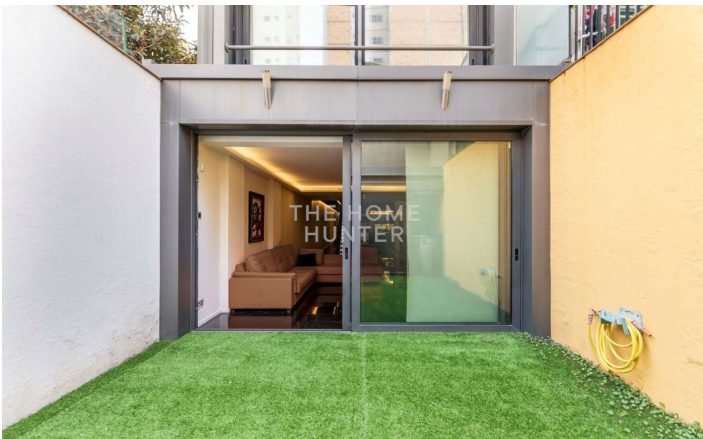

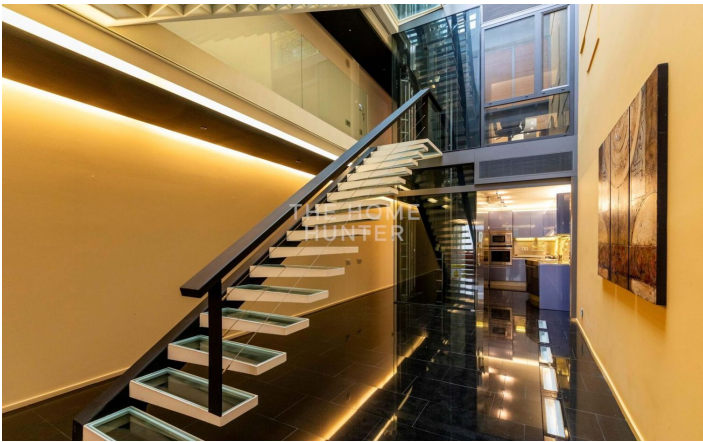

This 326m² apartment was completely renovated in 2005 and is divided into four floors. On the ground floor we have the garage with direct access to the house, a guest toilet, semi-open kitchen, living room with access to the garden, laundry room, garden and the elevator. On the first floor there are three exterior double bedrooms en suite, built-in wardrobes and a dressing room. On the second floor, a second living room with an integrated bar counter and an exterior double bedroom en suite. Finally, on the third floor we find a spa area with a jacuzzi and a machine area. The apartment has air conditioning and ducted heating.

You will love it!
