The day we took the photos, just like today, the weather wasn't the best to fully appreciate this beautiful house, but I think it still has its charm. The gray sky and the scent of wet grass complemented this house, which looked like something out of a fantasy tale. Its three floors became a labyrinth to explore, and its exterior held that summer promise you know will eventually come.

This three-story house has a total built area of 197m² and sits on an 810m² plot. The basement floor, measuring 35m², includes a garage. The ground floor, covering 68m², features an entrance hall, a living-dining room with access to the garden, a fireplace, a semi-open and fully equipped kitchen, a guest toilet, a swimming pool, and a built-in barbecue. The first floor, also 68m², has three double bedrooms (one with access to a terrace) and two bathrooms (one en suite). The house is equipped with air conditioning, diesel radiator heating, wooden windows, solar panels, and three water tanks for irrigation and the pool.

You'll love it!
