Osona / Sant Martí de Centelles

We have been waiting for days to be able to publish this house. Just seeing those stone walls, with so much green, so much tree, so much space to run... I was already 100% fascinated. And the interior, which I think clashes perfectly with the exterior aesthetics, with the white finishes and the parquet. Pure wonder.

This two-story country house renovated in 2019 has 361m² of land, of which 230m² belong to the house, which is located on a 4,313m² plot of land fenced with trees. The ground floor, measuring 129m², has a living-dining room with fireplace, separated kitchen, multipurpose room with toilet and a single room. The first floor, 101m², has three bedrooms (two doubles with dressing room, one of them en suite). The house has a 60m² porch for 4 cars and 72m² of storage in two buildings in the garden. It also has built-in wardrobes, double glazed windows and oil heating by radiators. The house was built in 1900.

You will love it!
